

Press Release

15th August 2019

VANA is proudly to announce its partnership with M&G Office to provide our members with full high-quality stationery products with a great price and margin.

M&G Group is the No.1 comprehensive stationery manufacturer and supplier in China, which integrates the value of creativity into its products and service advantages, now is willing to bring high-quality Chinese stationery brand into Australia.

M&G is a “creative corporation” which belongs to the creative stationery industry rather than a traditional manufacturing corporation. M&G Group has been involved in the stationery market for more than 20 years.

VANA understands stationery plays an integral role in our members’ daily business and we believe M&G Office will add great value with its incredible and creative products.

Full stationery product chain will be available from 15th August through www.nstock.com.au
